We have given a specific meaning to certain words.

- 'Accidental Damage' means physical damage to Tyres arising from an Event occurring by chance or unintentionally, as a result of Road Hazards.
- 'Commercial Use' means if the vehicle carries goods for commercial benefit or financial gain.
- 'Event' The Event which gave rise to Your claim. You may claim for one Tyre, subject to the limits set out in Your Policy Wording and Policy Schedule.
- 'Period of Insurance' is the period for which You paid a Premium. This period is the shorter of:
 - The time when the tread on Your Tyre is below 1mm, being the legal limit for tread on a Tyre;
 - or
 - When this Policy ends for any other reason as set out in the section.
- Ending Cover under this Policy: When this Policy ends.
- 'Policy' means Your Policy Schedule and this Policy wording and any endorsements or amendments that collectively make up Your insurance contract with Us and should be read together.
- 'Policy Start Date' is the date on which You activated this Policy and the date that cover begins as stated in Your Policy Schedule.
- 'Policyholder' refers to You, the owner of the Policy, named in the Policy Schedule.
- 'Policy Schedule' the Schedule containing Your details and the details of The Vehicle, Period of Insurance, Benefit Limits payable.
- 'Road Hazards' mean cuts, snags, irreparable punctures or bruises to Tyres and damage caused to Tyres by potholes, rocks, broken glass, steel bits, wooden debris, splinters and similar road conditions or objects.
- 'Tyre(s)' are all the Tyres fitted to Your vehicle at the time of the Event occurring.
- 'Tyre Benefit Limit' is the rand amount as reflected in the Policy Schedule, this is the amount We will pay in relation to tyres over the period of insurance.
- 'Tyre Retailer' refers to an Administrator approved Tyre and Rim fitment centre.

3. Qualifying criteria for cover

i) Tyre Benefit:

- You are covered for One claim within Your 6-month Period, which commences at the Policy Start Date.
- Claims are limited per Tyre. This means that the Policy covers one Tyre per claim Event up to the maximum amount specified in the benefit limits table above.

6. How to claim

To register a claim, it's as simple as:

- Visit Your closest Tiger Wheel & Tyre where You will be assisted in submitting Your claim.
- Tiger Wheel & Tyre trading hours are - Monday to Friday from 08:00 to 17:00 & Saturdays 8am – 1pm.

When submitting a claim, Tiger Wheel & Tyre will capture and submit the following to

Us. We may request additional information if needed:

This may include but is not limited to the below:

- Your Policy number,
- Photographs of the damaged Tyre,
- Photographs of all other Tyres on the vehicle reflecting the make, specifications and batch number or a written report from the Tyre Retailer containing this information,
- Incident details, including a detailed description of the Event,
- The nature of the damage to the Tyre together with digital images,
- Photographs of the Tread depth indicator gauge or a written report of the Tyre tread depth of the damaged Tyres from the Tyre Retailer,
- The odometer reading of the vehicle at the time of the incident,
- Vehicle registration number, and
- Tyre replacement quotation.

When the claim is for two or more damaged Tyres, the following additional information is required by the Administrator:

- Incident details - including proof of the exact location where the Event occurred by way of geo-location, photographs of the location showing identifiable landmarks or global positioning co-ordinates.
- The Administrator will assess Your claim based on the information provided and will provide You with details of Our approved Tyre Retailers if required,

Please note: Subject to the claims process, You must ensure that no repair work is done on Your vehicle until the Administrator has given its authorisation for the work to be carried out. Any repair work started or carried out without Our prior written authorisation will invalidate the claim, Unless an emergency repair is required as per the emergency repair clause.

- Once Your claim is approved as a valid claim under this Policy, the Administrator will issue an authorisation number to the approved Tyre Retailer.

Important notes:

- a) We are not liable for any manufacturer defects.
- b) We reserve the right to appoint a qualified assessor to assess any of the damage to the Tyre
- c) For any emergency repairs that might be needed outside of Tiger Wheel & Tyre business trading hours (working hours), You must:
Have the vehicle taken to a recognised Tyre Retailer,
 - Take pictures of the damaged Tyres. Pictures must include the damaged area, Tyre side walls including the tread surface of the Tyre,
 - Request the Tyre Retailer carrying out such emergency repair work to issue the invoice in Your name. The following details must appear on Your invoice: Vehicle details, registration number and/ or Vin Number,
 - Pay the Tyre retailer directly and lodge a claim with the Administrator within 30 days of the Event taking place Upon You lodging a claim,
 - You must submit all of the information noted above.
- d) In the event of a claim, where an active X-Sure® Tyre and Wheel Insurance Policy is in place, the claim will first be assessed and processed under the X-Sure® Tyre and Wheel Insurance Policy benefits. Should the claim exceed the available cover or fall outside the scope of the X-Sure® Tyre and Wheel Insurance Policy, the X-Sure Zero™ Product benefits will then be applied where applicable.

Please Note: We shall reimburse You for the costs of the emergency work up to the invoice value or applicable benefit limit amount as stated in the Policy Schedule, provided the repair work falls within the terms and conditions and benefit provided in the Policy.

7. Exclusions and components not covered

We will not cover a claim for:

- a. Tyres that are damaged because of:
 - Fire, scorching, charring, melting chemical burning or flat spots
 - Vandalism or mechanical failure of the vehicle.
 - Modifications to Tyres that are not as per manufacturer specification.
 - Where the vehicle exceeded the maximum carrying capacity as specified by the vehicle manufacturer at the time of the claim Event.
- b. We do not cover the following kinds of Damage to Tyres:
 - Tyres that can safely be repaired in the opinion of the Administrator or approved Tiger Wheel & Tyre specialist.
 - Tyres that are damaged because the vehicle was in an accident, and the accident also caused damage to other parts of the vehicle.
- c. We do not cover any of the following:
 - Lost or stolen Tyres.
 - The cost to repair any damage to the vehicle, which is caused by a damaged Tyre. For example, if a Tyre / Wheel bursts / breaks and because of that the vehicle is in an accident, we will not pay for any damage to the vehicle.
- d. We do not cover damage to Tyres if You:
 - Submit a claim later than 30 days after the date of the Event that caused the damage: or
 - Abused or misused Your vehicle. For example: Using Your vehicle for drag-racing.
- e. We will not pay for consequential loss. For example, if Your Tyre is damaged on the way to the airport, we will cover You for the damaged Tyre only. We will not pay for any loss You may suffer because You missed Your flight.
- f. We do not cover wear and tear. This is the gradual deterioration of Your Tyres that is caused by normal driving of Your vehicle, or by exposure to sunlight and weather conditions.
- g. Damage to the Tyres which are covered by any other insurance Policy. In this instance, we will only pay Our rateable proportion of any repairs or damage.

8. When does the cover and Policy end?

The Policy and all cover ends:

- When the Policy is cancelled.
- When You replace the Tyres and don't inform Tiger Wheel & Tyre.
- If the Insurer / Tiger Wheel & Tyre prove that a fraudulent activity has been committed by You in relation to Your Policy.
- If the insured vehicle changes ownership, the policy comes to an end and You must inform us of the change. If the new owner of the vehicle would like to insure the tyres they must take out a new policy in their name on the vehicle.
- This Policy will terminate after 6 months from inception date or after you have claimed on this Policy which ever occurs first.

9. What do we expect from You?

- a) You must take all precautionary and reasonable steps to maintain Your Tyres to prevent any unnecessary damage such as:
 - i) Ensure Your Tyres are inflated at the correct pressure and regularly rotated as per the manufacturer specifications.
 - ii) Ensure the Tyres on Your vehicle are as per the manufacturer specifications, any modifications should be done by a Tiger Wheel & Tyre specialist.
 - iii) If You have a damaged Tyre, do not continue to drive if possible as this may cause further damage. You may only do so if Your vehicle has manufacturer approved run flat Tyres. Also take Your safety into account and only stop / pull over when safe to do so.
- b) It is Your obligation to accurately and properly disclose all material facts. You remain responsible for the accuracy and completeness of all answers, statements or other information provided by You or on Your behalf. Misrepresentation, fraud, non-disclosure of a material fact or an incorrect or inaccurate statement or information by You or on Your behalf may lead to the rejection of a claim or the cancellation of this Policy, or any section of the Policy, and no refund of Premiums.

10. Policy review and cancellation

You can cancel the Policy at any time. This Policy does not have any surrender or paid-up value. We have the right to change or cancel the Policy, benefits, Premiums with 31 days' notice for any reason, including but not limited to:

- Comply with legislation or other rules applicable to this Policy.
- Ensure our reputation remains intact or is not compromised.
- A change in Your claim risk profile.
- The Policy no longer remaining financially feasible for the Insurer. This may be applicable to a product line.
- Stop undesirable or criminal activity.

11. Complaints and claims rejection process

If You have a complaint, You can submit it by calling 087 312 1079 or sending an email to complaints@motorite.co.za. If we reject a claim or any portion of it, You have 90 days to ask us in writing for a review of the decision. We will review the claim decision when we receive the request and tell You of our reviewed decision in writing. If You do not serve a summons on us within 180 days from the day when we tell You of our final decision, we will be relieved of our liability and Your claim will be deemed to have expired. This 180-day period is in addition to the 90 days as referred to above. If we still reject Your claim and You are not satisfied with the reason that we give for the rejection or if You have any unresolved dispute about this Policy, You may refer the matter to the National Financial Ombud Scheme; NFO Cape Town: 6th Floor, Claremont Central Building, 6 Vineyard Road, Claremont, 7708. NFO Johannesburg: 110 Oxford Road, Houghton Estate, Johannesburg, Gauteng, 2198 Tel: 0860 800 900. Email: info@nfosa.co.za; Website: www.nfosa.co.za.

12. General conditions

This Policy will be subject to the Laws that apply in the Republic of South Africa. We may be lenient in enforcing the terms and conditions if it is to Your benefit. This will not prevent us from being able to enforce any existing or future right we have. If You have any other insurance Policy covering the same loss or damage covered by this Policy, we are only liable to contribute a pro-rata proportion of loss or damage. If we ask, You must help us to bring legal proceedings against any party responsible for Your loss.

We are entitled to bring such legal proceedings in Your name. We will have full discretion in the conduct of any proceedings or in the settlement of any claim. You undertake not to commit any act or omission which may diminish our claim against the party responsible for your loss.

We will communicate with You using the contact details You have provided to us. All communication will be considered as delivered on the date of being sent. You can ask for a copy of a written or printed record of any transaction.
